FOSTER CARE SUMMIT

ONE HEART. MANY ROLES. BEAUTIFUL OUTCOMES.

MAY IS FOSTER CARE AWARENESS MONTH!

Join Us!

 for four live virtual sessions and hear from four powerful speakers.

Our goal is to encourage, equip, and inform those who have a heart for some of the most vulnerable in our community. Come be inspired by those who will help you consider your role in foster care.

Our Guest Speakers

Jason Johnson is a foster and adoptive father and regular writer and speaker on orphan care related issues. He is the Director of the National Church Initiative with Christian Alliance for Orphans. Jason is the author of All in Orphan Care, and most recently, Reframing Foster Care. He also regularly blogs at jasonjohnsonblog.com Chelsea Cameron is wife to actor and speaker Kirk Cameron, and mom to six. She speaks regularly on parenting, motherhood, and family. Being an adopted daughter herself, Chelsea knew she would choose adoption as her first choice for motherhood. She will be sharing on the topic of loving well, building bonds, and connections with her children not biologically yours.

Jen Lilley, Hallmark movie actress, singer, adoptive mom, foster care advocate, and host of the Fostering Hope podcast, shares her personal journey and insights and how we can provide safe and nurturing homes for all children.

Ryan North and his wife have 6 children, 4 adopted from foster care, and are co-founders of One Big Happy Home. They are both TBRI Practitioners and have trained hundreds of leaders across the U.S. and Canada. They have developed online training for parents and churches which is available at their online trauma school.
